

MONARCHIST COUP BREWING IN GERMANY

THOUGHT EX-RULER CONTEMPLATING A RETURN TO BERLIN

Has Passports for Self and Suite—Stated
There is Belief a Hohenzollern Will be Restored to Throne at Early Date—Former Emperor Kept in Close Touch with Events

BRUSSELS, Nov. 12. (A. P.)—The former German emperor is preparing to return to the fatherland. He already has in his hands passports for himself and his suite, and the Brussels Gazette goes so far as to say that it is understood that the Hohenzollern will be restored on December 4, William, or his son, the former crown prince Frederick William, ascending the throne.

Private advices from Doorn, received by the Agency Telegraphique Belge, says that a courier, Von Hoechst, arrived at Doorn at four o'clock this afternoon with 12 German passports, for the ex-emperor and his immediate suite. A telegram in cipher was received there in the morning, and early in the afternoon there was a long conference between William and those close to him. Later a high Dutch official, Dr. Kan, of the ministry of the interior, called and was closeted with the former emperor for 35 minutes.

A wireless system has been installed at the Doorn house, which has been the residence of the head of the Hohenzollerns during the late years of his internment in Holland, and messages are received from Naumen at noon daily.

Late dispatches from Doorn, where former Emperor William has resided since his internment in Holland announced that he was maintaining close relations with the leaders of the German monarchist movement and was said to be hopeful that the events in Germany would turn in his favor.

It was also reported that the Dutch government was anxious to consult with the allies before granting permission to either the former emperor or former crown prince to visit Holland, but when the crown prince did depart from that country the Dutch government denied any responsibility for him under international law.

A second St. Helena

Holland, according to recent French advices, might be regarded as an insufficiently secure retreat for the ex-emperor in view of the flight of Frederick William. This was stated on the authority of the foreign office, and it was suggested that a second St. Helena might be chosen for him.

A dispatch from The Hague under date of November 12 announced that Dr. Kan, of the Dutch ministry of the interior, had gone to Doorn for a conference with the former German emperor. This visit may have had an important bearing on the news, which now comes out of Brussels that William is about to return to the fatherland.

That has been his ambition for a long time past, and the former kaiser has been kept in close touch with the changing political conditions in Germany. Whether he would ever be able to get back his throne has been problematic all along, but his great desire has been to keep the Hohenzollern name to the front, so that if the monarchists ever were successful in their activities, a Hohenzollern could return as ruler.

EX DIRECTOR OF VETS BUREAU TO BE HEARD TODAY

Before Senate Committee Investigating
Veterans' Care

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—The senate investigating committee cleared the decks today for the appearance before it tomorrow of Charles R. Forbes, former director of the Veterans' Bureau, who has been the center of fire in the inquiry.

The expectation is that Forbes' direct and cross-examination will consume upwards of two days. At the outset he will ask permission to read a prepared statement in reply to the charges which have been made against him.

The former director also plans to call army and navy officers who will be questioned with a view to refuting testimony which has been given with regard to awarding of contracts for veterans' hospitals.

The committee also expect to recall for cross-examination Elias H. Mortimer, of Philadelphia, whose charges against Forbes proved one of the sensations of the hearing.

Inquiry by the committee today was directed largely to the operations of the medical division. Dr. L. B. Rodgers, director of that division, was the witness and he stated there had been great abuses in the use of contract hospitals not only with respect to charges made to the government, but also in the matter of the care of the veterans and the food served to them.

Senator Walsh, Democrat, Massachusetts, developed that in some instances political influence has been used to keep contract hospitals in operation after examination by bureau officials has shown them to be unsatisfactory.

Senator Walsh pointed to the case of such a hospital in New England which was not closed until two years after it had been found to be unfit.

Dr. Rodgers could give little information as to alleged abuses in the matter of the appointment of guardians for mentally incompetent veterans but Senator Reed, Republican, Pennsylvania, chairman of the committee, said approximately $5,500,000 is paid out annually to such guardians without proper safeguard as to its dispositions.

Commander O'Leary also took issue with Colonel Henry C. Smith, of the budget bureau, who charged that there had been a "padding" of the list of supplies to be sold at Perryville after the list had been cleared through the budget bureau as containing no material desired by other departments.

ALIEN LAND OWNERSHIP IN UNITED STATES IS RULED ON

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—(A. P.)—Aliens can be prohibited by states from owning land, provided here is no treaty stipulation to the contrary, the supreme court announced today in an opinion ending a legal controversy which for years had been an issue on the Pacific coast. The question has shared in importance with the controversy which was waged over the right of Japanese to citizenship, until the courts removal from the field of discussion by a decision last term.

The issue reached the supreme court in two cases, one from Washington, brought by Frank Terrace and his wife and N. Nakatsuka, and the other from California brought by W. I. Porterfield and Y. Mizuno. While the cases presented only the proposed leasing of land to ineligible aliens, the court squarely met the issue, and passed on the broad question of the constitutionality of the law. It held that states could, as Washington had, prohibit from owning land aliens eligible to citizenship, but who had not declared their intentions, as well as aliens ineligible to citizenship, or as California had, restrict the prohibition to aliens who had not in good faith declared intention to become citizens.

No Real Violation

The states of California and Washington sought to have the cases disposed of on technicality in neither case and there been a actual violation of the law, there having been no leases made nor any confiscation of land as provided by the two states as penalty for the violation of the law.

The supreme court found, however, that there was presented certain equitable rights which entitled both the land owner and the proposed Japanese lessee to a lien to the validity of the laws before they had incurred liability to punishment. It therefore assumed full jurisdiction to review the cases from every point of view. The main decision was handed down in the Washington case, the court explaining that the grounds upon which the Washington alien land law was attacked included those on which the California act was assailed.

The court not only found the

GERMAN CROWN PRINCE GIVES WATCHERS SLIP

Believed He Will Arrive at His Estates
Tuesday

BERLIN, Nov. 12.—(A. P.)—Frederick William is due at Oels Tuesday, according to semi-official information here. He is reported to have made several convenient stops on his way from the border, spending Sunday and Sunday nights on estates of his old friends in southwest Brandenburg.

While it was rumored he was in close proximity to Berlin, official quarters deny this and declare that he is living up strictly to the promise he gave Chancellor Stresemann.

Not Yet Arrived

Oels, Nov. 12.—The former German crown prince had not arrived at Oels up to midnight tonight, unless he has succeeded in escaping the vigilance of the waiting correspondents who have been besieging all visible entrances to the castle for the past 24 hours.

There is no information here regarding the route he is traveling or where he spent Saturday and Sunday nights.

Practically all of Oels' leading citizens, from the probate court judge down, have donned Prince Albert coats and high hats in honor of the former German crown prince's homecoming. American and other foreign press correspondents and motion picture men have descended upon the town by the score, in airplanes, motor cars or by railway. The hotels today were filled to the overflowing and the proprietors were obviously more pleased than the other citizens over the return of the town to a pre-war status.

Informal Reception

No official reception has been planned for Frederick William, the burgomaster not having been officially advised of his return. The exile comes back as a private citizen. Furthermore, the castle is under separate jurisdiction and not under the control of the local administration. It has its own government comprised of officials who police the buildings and the surrounding estate on which Princess Cecilie, Frederick William's wife, and her children reside.

There are fewer than twenty known communists living in Oels, whose working population of approximately three thousand is, however, seemingly anything but elated over the possibility of the town's suddenly becoming a monarchistic headquarters. The former king of Saxony, Frederick August, lives on an estate only ten miles away.

Many People Grumpy

The average man and woman is grumpy about the government permitting the former crown prince to return.

"He saw fit to run out of Germany in her hour of great trouble; why should he be allowed to return now?" observed one elderly woman.

A certain faction, however, welcomes the exile, and "Deutschland Uber Alles" resounded in the beer halls today.

Former Crown Princess Cecilie left the castle by motor car in the middle of the afternoon accompanied by her two children for an unknown destination. She returned at 9 o'clock. This gave rise to the rumor that the prince was putting up at a hunting lodge ten miles distant from the castle, which in pre-war days was a favorite haunt of his.

PURCHASE OF HOME BY OKLAHOMA HEAD BEING CHECKED UP

It is Alleged in Impeachment Proceedings
That Manner of Financing Purchase Governor of State Obligated Self to Persons
Owning Millions in Oklahoma Property

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Nov. 12. (A. P.)—Financial transactions by which Governor J. C. Walton acquired a $48,000 residence here last May, involving a canvas of wealthy men of the state in an effort to dispose of six $5,000 notes which the legislature gave to Walter C. Caldwell, the owner of the property, were detailed before the senate court here today in the government's impeachment trial.

In purchasing the residence, Governor Walton paid Caldwell, a local oil man $18,000 cash and gave him notes for the balance. These notes were sold to E. W. Marland, president of the Marland Oil and Refining company.

The governor is charged in the impeachment bill with obligating himself thereby to Marland who is described as owning "several millions of dollars of taxable property" in Oklahoma. The bill charges that the transaction was "wilfully corrupt" in that the governor is chairman of the state board of realization which assesses the property in the state.

Caldwell told the court that he negotiated the sale of the notes and described his efforts to induce various men to purchase them. He ascertained that the terms of the sale of the house were completed before he attempted to dispose of the notes.

Note Transactions

Asked if he had told Chauncey B. Nichols, manager of the Oklahoma Portland Cement company that he "would right the difficulty" the company had with the governor if he would take one of the notes, Mr. Caldwell replied:

"I did not tell him exactly that. I told him I would talk with the governor in regard to Nichols' difficulties if he would purchase one of the notes."

Nichols, who testified later, declared that Caldwell told him he "would be a sucker" if he did not buy the note. Nichols stated that Caldwell asserted he "would try to fix things up with the governor" if the note was taken.

C. J. Wrightsman, wealthy Tulsa oil man, testified that he declined emphatically to purchase three of the notes after he had already contributed more than $12,000 to Walton's campaign expenses.

Refused Depositions

The court refused to accept depositions made by Marland and voted to ask him to appear in person when he is able. He is ill at present.

At the morning session today the first attempt to introduce the Ku Klux Klan as an issue in the trial met a swift rebuff by the court.

Homier D. Martin, lieutenant in the Oklahoma national guard who testified that for a year and a half he had guarded the residence of the governor at night, told the court that the executive had been threatened with death.

"Wasn't that about the time that Mr. Walton, as mayor, issued a proclamation directed against the Klan," defense counsel asked.

The prosecution entered a protest and Tom Anglin, president of the senate to stifle any reference to the Klan. He was sustained by an oral vote of the court.

FLIGHT OF EX- CROWN PRINCE UP TO NATIONS

Council of Ambassadors Decline to Take Action

PARIS, Nov. 12.—(A. P.)—The allied council of ambassadors practically washed its hands this afternoon of the case arising from the former German crown prince's flight from Holland by referring it to their governments. A note from the German government replying to the ambassadors' report in the matter was received this morning stating that the council take cognizance of it, although it was agreed yesterday between London and Paris that the affair should be taken from the ambassadors' council and settled by the usual department negotiations. The ambassadors decided that in the absence of instructions from their respective capitals, Germany's reply should be referred to their governments.

May Consider Case

It was announced that the council, which meets next Wednesday to consider the question of allied military control in Germany, would take up the crown prince matter again if instructions were received from the governments. It is believed in diplomatic circles that such instructions will not be forthcoming and that further negotiations will be conducted through the foreign offices.

The feeling is growing in French circles that any action other than force is doomed to failure. There is also current opinion to the effect that it would be an error to single out Frederick William for penalties while so many others equally responsible for the outbreak of the war and even more guilty are unmolested. It is feared here that insistence by the allies of the surrender of the

ECKHARDT LOST HIS DAMAGE SUIT AGAINST FILLEY

Court Holds Charge of Libel of Agriculturist Not Sustained

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 12.—A. G. Eckhardt, DeKalb, Illinois, former secretary of the United States grain growers, Inc., lost his $70,000 libel suit against Professor H. C. Filley of the University of Nebraska and the Nebraska farm bureau federation in federal district court here today when Judge T. C. Munger sustained a motion directing verdict in favor of the defendants.

The suit was filed by Mr. Eckhardt following publication in a farm paper of an article by Mr. Filley concerning Mr. Eckhardt's connection with the United States Grain Growers.

The court held that there were no charges in the article which attacked Mr. Eckhardt's ability or integrity as an agriculturist expert, although the article did question his business ability in several instances.

"There has been no evidence that the article has so damaged Mr. Eckhardt's reputation to the extent that if he had applied for positions as an expert agriculturist he would have been refused," the judge said.

DAKOTA TO AGAIN ENTER GAS BUSINESS

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Nov. 12.—(A. P.)—Governor W. H. McMaster and the state of South Dakota will enter the gasoline business for the second time tomorrow, and gasoline will be on sale at the state supply depot at Mitchell at 16 cents per gallon.

This action was determined today by the governor as a result of the recently announced raise in this state by the Standard Oil Company, to seventeen and one half cents per gallon, to equalize prices with those in the rest of the country.

former crown prince would result in making him more popular than he is at present in Germany.

It is too late now, it is argued to forestall any intrigue connected with his return, while insistent efforts to have him expelled would appear to the German people like persecution.

MANY INJURED IN WRECK AT ATTICA

DANVILLE, Ill., Nov. 12.—Fireman Fred Whitcomb, Peru, Ind., who was making his first run on a Wabash work train, was instantly killed; fireman Al Shanks, of Tilton, Ill., was probably fatally injured and seventeen others, thirteen of whom were section men, were injured this evening when the engine of local freight No. 76, while backing out of a brick yard at Attica, Ind., was struck by the work train. The injuries of the section men, one of whom had his nose cut off, were treated at Attica and they with Engineer George Miller, of Peru, Ind., who was badly cut and scalded, Conductor Charles Berry, of Peru, Brakeman Dempsey and Engineer Leslie, who were severely bruised were brought to a Danville hospital.

CHANGE OF VENUE IS GRANTED IN PANA LIQUOR CASE

Trials of Tokoly and Smith
Will Be Heard in Taylorville

PANA, Ill., Nov. 12.—Motions for a change of venue to Taylorville were granted late today in the cases of John Tokoly and Robert A. Smith, under five indictments for murder and five for manslaughter, in connection with the deaths of five persons here recently from poisonous whiskey.

The motions were granted by Circuit Judge F. R. Dove of Shelbyville, sitting for City Judge Priests, who disqualified himself. The motions alleged prejudice against the defendants in Pana. As a result the cases will be heard in the circuit court of this county, instead of the city court here.

Motions to nullify the indictments on the allegation that they are defective, will be heard at Taylorville when the term of court opens next month.

Smith, a chemist, is alleged to have made the whiskey, and the Tokolys are alleged to have sold it from their soft drink parlor here. A motion by Smith for immediate trial was set for hearing on December 10.

POINCARÉ WOULD NAME EXPERTS TO FIX REPARATIONS

Premier Suggests This Plan for Showing Germany's Resources

PARIS, Nov. 12. (A. P.)—Premier Poincaré has decided to propose the creation of a committee of experts to investigate the question of Germany reparations. The committee as suggested, would be composed of delegates from the powers represented in reparation committee. Its duties would be to establish Germany's external and internal resources; where the exported German capital lies, and how it can be brought back; how and in what amount the resources of the reich can at present be utilized for reparations and how Germany can re-establish her economical position.

It is further proposed that a technical expert be added to the committee for each country. The investigation would last two months at least.

In taking up on his own account a plan for a committee of experts, M. Poincaré was moved by a desire to furnish fresh proof of his resolution to leave no method likely to lead to a solution of the reparations problem untried. The premier, it is announced would by no means refuse to enter into negotiations with Germany, now the passive resistance has ceased and wilful defaults in deliveries in kind have stopped, thanks to the direct agreement with the German industrial leaders.

WHEAT ACREAGE REDUCTION IS COUNCIL'S PLAN

Believe Less Area in Grain Will Adjust
Price Difficulty

CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—(A. P.)—The present wheat acreage of 62,000,000 acres planted should be reduced gradually to 50,000,000 acres, an acreage sufficient to take care of domestic demands, as rapidly as profitable alternative crops can be introduced, the wheat production committee of the Wheat Council of the United States has decided. President Sydney Anderson of the council announced after today's meeting of the committee. The meeting will be continued tomorrow.

The committee Mr. Anderson said, is confining its consideration to a long time program and afford relief to the wheat farmer. The report, he said, will not attempt to deal with the immediate situation or its remedies.

"We recommend definite extension programs looking toward reducing the wheat acreage wherever an alternative crop or type of farming can be found which will prove more profitable," he said. "It is believed that there are better opportunities for making readjustment in the humid areas than in the sub-humid areas."

A permanently broadened domestic market for wheat," he said, "is an essential part of the plan for stabilization of the business of wheat growing in the opinion of the committee."

HISTORIC VIEWS OF ENGLAND

A very interesting lecture will be given this evening at Brooklyn church, under the auspices of the Epworth League of that church. The subject of the lecture will be "The South of England" and will be presented by Dr. Wallace N. Stearns of the Illinois Wesleyan College. It will be illustrated with about fifty beautifully colored Stereopticon Slides, representing scenes over which Dr. Stearns repeatedly travelled during his overseas experience. Many of them are in the vicinity of Winchester, which was the ancient seat of Alfred, the English King, called Alfred the Great. Of one of these views, there are only two copies in this country, having been obtained from the British Air Service at the close of the war.
Dr. Stearns states that this lecture will be valuable to students of English Literature and English History, and it will no doubt be interesting to overseas men of the A. E. F., as well as to the general public.
Tickets may be secured from members of the Brooklyn Epworth League. The proceeds will be used in the redecoration and refurbishing of the League room of the church.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR REV. W. S. PHILLIPS

Large Assemblage Gathered to Honor Memory of Well Known Methodist Minister—Service Held at Centenary Church
Funeral services in memory of the late Rev. W. S. Phillips were held Sunday afternoon with a very large company in attendance. A service was held at the Methodist church in Carlville Saturday morning, when the discourse was delivered by Dr. W. J. Davidson. Later the remains were brought to Jacksonville and taken to the home of Wood Phillips, a son of the deceased, at 6 Duncan Place. There with only immediate members of the family present, a very brief service was held at 2:15, in charge of Rev. Albert Wood, a brother of Mrs. Phillips.
Then the body was removed to Centenary M. E. church, where Mr. Phillips was active in religious work in the earlier years of his life. There were people in the large audience present from a wide area as Mr. Phillips in addition to having been resident here for a long period, had served several churches in this vicinity.
The services were in charge of Rev. Arthur Chapman, district superintendent, a number of other ministers taking part. The Scripture was read by Rev. C. D. Robertson, pastor of Centenary church, who chose verses from the 3rd and 4th chapters of Second Timothy.
Rev. Mr. Chapman in beginning the service read the verses of the hymn that had long been a favorite of Mr. Phillips: "How Firm a Foundation, Ye Saints of the Lord."
Prayer was offered by Rev. George Hayes, pastor of the M. E. church at White Hall, and a former parishioner of Mr. Phillips. In the prayer Mr. Hayes made reference to the lasting influence there had been upon his own life by the contact with the deceased minister.
Mrs. A. R. Gregory sang "The Lord is My Shepherd," with Miss Larmore at the organ. Obituary facts covering the life of Mr. Phillips were given by Rev. C. R. Morrison, now a retired minister of the conference, and a long time friend of both Mr. Phillips and his father.
After the obituary facts had been given Rev. Christie Galeener of Carrollton delivered the funeral discourse. Rev. Mr. Galeener took as his text a part of the same verses that Rev. Mr. Davidson had used for a theme at Carlville Saturday morning: "I have fought a good fight; I have finished my course; I have kept the faith."
At the close of Rev. Mr. Galeener's sermon Rev. Mr. Chapman referred to the death of Mr. Phillips as a triumphant entrance into a larger life. He compared his going to the death of Paul, King Arthur and Valiant in Pilgrim's Progress. His remarks were closed with the lines from the hymn:
"Servant of God, well done, Thy glorious warfare past; The battle's fought, the race is won, And thou art crowned at last."
Then as Miss Larmore played the Chopin funeral march, opportunity was given to those in the large company to look for the last time upon their friend. The long cortege then moved from Centenary church to Diamond Grove cemetery. Rev. Mr. Chapman offered the prayer of the committal service and Mr. Phillips was laid to rest in a grave beautified by flowers.
The many floral emblems were in charge of Mrs. Forrest Siefkin, Mrs. H. A. Williamson, Mrs. Garm Norbury, Mrs. J. W. Larson, Mrs. Frances Rantz, Miss Esther Davis and Miss Eleanor Masters.
The bearers were Thomas H. Rapp, Charles A. Rowe, Vincent R. Riley, David Foster, H. D. Atkins and J. W. Wain.
In his discourse Rev. Mr. Galeener spoke with special feeling, as he had known Mr. Phillips for a long period and in his conference work had been intimately associated with him.
Mr. Galeener said that while it was a day of sadness that it must be also a day of rejoicing, as the members of the family and friends realize that Mr. Phillips had so lived that he had not come to the end of his life, but had really entered into a wider sphere of usefulness and endeavor. He said that while we cannot but speculate as to the life beyond the grave, that he, like his deceased friend, was fully persuaded that heaven is a place of continued activity, that the days of life are but the period of preparation, the time of testing. Mr. Galeener said that Mr. Phillips was fully equipped with the sword of the spirit and notwithstanding the attacks made from without that with a spirit of calmness and equanimity he went unwearily along the way, meeting conditions as he found them.
The deceased minister was referred to as a student, one who constantly kept abreast of the times, one who was by no means satisfied with whatever degree of knowledge or learning he had already attained.
"The temptations which come to the minister are strong and numerous," Mr. Galeener said, "but this friend of our kept the faith. Altho a student he was not disturbed by some of the so-called modern doctrines and steadfastly maintained the principles in which he was so thoroughly grounded. He believed in a personal Savior and that salvation has come thru Christ crucified."
Mr. Galeener spoke of the unvarying good nature of Mr. Phillips, the faculty he had of "laying his hand upon the shoulder in a friendly sort of way" and said that it was this quality that gave him an influence upon so many lives while he served as chaplain at the Pontiac reformatory.
Mr. Phillips had qualities which certainly have made for business success but more money making had no allurements for him and he preferred to continue in the work of the church.
Rev. Mr. Morrison in his summary of Mr. Phillips' life gave the following facts:
Reverend William Sandusky Phillips was born in Washington county, Ky., July 8, 1856, and died at his home in Carlville, Illinois, on Thursday, November 8th, 1923, aged 67 years and four months. His illness was of less than a week's duration. He was taken sick on Friday, November 2nd. It became apparent at once that he was seriously ill. Medical skill, aided by the constant assistance of trained nurses, was of no avail, and at noon of that beautiful and cloudless day, surrounded by his dear and loved ones, his spirit took its flight.
Mr. Phillips was the son of Dr. Franklin William Phillips and Lucy Jane Phillips. They lived in Kentucky. The family moved to Illinois in 1864, coming direct to Carlville, and upon their arrival there, went at once to the home of their relative, Nicholas Boice. The senior Phillips was a minister and after filling various pastorates, the family moved to Jacksonville, Ill., where Mr. Phillips father became superintendent of the State School for the Blind.
Here the young man, who was afterwards to become one of the conspicuous and popular ministers in the Illinois Conference, attended the public schools and graduated from the Jacksonville High school. Subsequently he received the degree of Arts from Illinois College.
Married Miss Wood
Mr. W. S. Phillips and Miss Mary C. Wood were married in June, 1884. Four sons were born to them. He succeeded his father as superintendent of the School for the Blind in 1888 and served in that capacity until he and his family removed to Kansas, where they remained until 1923. They then returned to Illinois, where he entered the Methodist ministry in the Illinois Conference. He continued in that high calling continuously until the time of his death, with the exception of a period of five years. In 1901 he was tendered and accepted the position of assistant superintendent of the Illinois State Reformatory at Pontiac. In that important work he achieved a high degree of success, stamping the impress of his personality upon the boys in that institution, and bringing about changes in the policies and methods of instruction and management which re-echoed greatly to his credit.
Mr. Phillips' assignments in the Illinois Conference were as follows:
Served Many Churches
1894 to 1896, New Salem; 1897, West Jacksonville; 1898 to 1900, Kossville; 1901 to 1905 assistant superintendent of the State Reformatory at Pontiac; Feb. 1906 to Oct. 1906, Mount Sterling; 1906 to 1907, Lynnville and Zion; 1907 to 1911, West Jacksonville Circuit; 1912 to 1916, Cerro Gordo; 1917 to 1923, Carlville.
Mr. Phillips is survived by his beloved wife and four sons, Rev. John Phillips, of Manchester, New Hampshire; William Phillips, of Chicago; Frank W. Phillips, of Mounmouth, and Wood Phillips, of Jacksonville; also by two brothers, R. M. Phillips, of Yates Center, Kansas, and Doctor George Phillips, of Pawnee, Oklahoma.
Mr. Phillips was possessed of unusual musical ability. During his stay in Jacksonville and in all of his charges, he has been exceedingly popular in musical circles. For nearly twenty years he has led the singing at the Illinois Conference. In all of his church work, he believed that there should be close union between church and Sunday school, and his activities in that direction caused him to be recognized throughout the state as a conspicuously successful Sunday school worker.
More Than A Preacher
Reverend Phillips was more than preacher and pastor. He was a big, broad-minded, forward-looking man, possessed of a most genial and affable manner, abounding in human kindness, always ministering to those in need, happiest when extending the helping hand to the one given up as lost, and pointing the way to the better and eternal life so earnestly and so conclusively as to impress men who had before not seen. He was a student of men as well as of books. In the pulpit, on the street, everywhere, all of the time, he sought to lead people to see the right, and to do the right. He was never harsh or coercive. He lived the life of a fine, Christian gentleman. He loved humankind, and had sympathy for its weaknesses and its frailties. He practiced in a high and broad manner the teachings and Commandments of Him whose faithful servant he was. In the passing of Rev. Phillips, his church, all of the churches, and the men and women without the churches, have lost a splendid teacher, a genuine lover of humanity, an exemplary citizen, a real friend.

Mr. Morrison then read another of the deceased minister's favorite hymns, "Majestic Sweetness Sits enthroned upon the Saviour's Brow," which the speaker said he had often heard him sing to groups of men in shops and factories, with telling and inspiring effect.
Among those here to attend the funeral services were: Mr. and Mrs. William Phillips, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Phillips, Mounmouth; John Phillips, Manchester, N. H.; Dr. George Phillips, Mt. Pleasant, Mich.; Miss Lizzie Lowe, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Minton, James McClure, Carlville; Mr. and Mrs. Uel Sinclair, Ashland.

The committee in charge was Miss Elsie Cully, Miss Dorothy Huston and Mrs. Earl Martin.

PARLIAMENT OF GREAT BRITAIN REASSEMBLES

LONDON, Nov. 12.—(A. P.)—The British parliament will resume its labors tomorrow without special ceremony, to proceed with the unfinished stages of the budget measures like the workmen's compensation and similar bills.

That was the prospect when it adjourned for the summer recess, but the fates have ordained otherwise, and the members reassemble under the shadow of a great political crisis and probable dissolution within the coming week, to test the opinion of the country on the controversy of protection versus free trade, which is agitating the political world as it has not been agitated except by a similar controversy in 1915 and by the debates on Irish independence.

It is not known tonight what exactly will happen, though it is stated with a great show of authority that parliament will dissolve next Thursday. The fact that the premier had a conference with the king today gives color to this report.

C. W. Boyer of Jerseyville transacted business in this city Monday.

Mrs. Louis Rutherford was a Riggston shopper in the city Monday.

You Can Quickly Limber Up Sore, Stiff, Swollen Joints

Even Chronic Rheumatic Swellings in Knee, Elbow, Shoulder or Finger Joints Yield to the Mighty Powerful Influence of JOINT-EASE.

It's here, right in town, and all druggists have it.

It's a low price remedy, to be sure, but that doesn't stop it from taking the kinks, lameness or torture out of your troubled joints.

JOINT-EASE is the name, so called because it is compounded solely for the purpose of relieving all joint ailments.

Just rub it on the tormented, lame joints and in just a few seconds it will penetrate to the bone and blessed comfort comes quickly.

It absorbs instantly and is so clean and stainless that you can rub it on often and get thereby results much more quickly, when the joint is inflamed and the agony intense.

Being such a powerful counter irritant, it cannot help bringing speedy and helpful results in congestion, sore throats, chest colds, lumbago and neuralgia much quicker than almost any remedy you can buy.

But you must remember that it is for joint afflictions that it is mostly dispensed and its helpfulness will astonish you after all ordinary liniments and other treatments have failed.

SMALL FORCES IN COOK COUNTY JOIN IN DEMONSTRATION

Claim Thousands of Cards Signed for Governor Show Strength

CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—From the experiences he has received in meetings in 25 counties of the state within the last few months Governor Len Small declared tonight before nearly 400 Cook county and downstate workers in his campaign for re-election that he is confident of a greater victory in the coming campaign than he achieved in the last election.

"I've come close to the people of the state in these meetings, with people in the small towns of five thousand, two thousand and even those out in the country," he declared. "They are beginning to understand the issue."

The issue, he declared, was between the people and opposition newspapers with the interests they represent, and "Len Small, Bill Thompson and you workers with the people."

Another state-wide rally to assemble here on December 21, was arranged at the close of the meeting when Thompson challenged the downstate workers to attempt to equal the showing in pledge cards made by the Cook county workers.

War leaders, addressing the workers, expressed confidence that Chicago and Cook county, under the leadership of William Hale Thompson, former mayor, who sat beside Governor Small at the meeting, would again roll up a plurality large enough to overcome any losses that might occur downstate.

Downstate leaders were equally confident that the losses Governor Small sustained in this election in 1920 would be changed to victories next year.

William J. Stratton, state game warden under Governor Small, whose home is in Lake county, handed the governor 4,000 pledge cards he declared he had gathered in that county in the last six days. He predicted that a complete canvass will give Small a large plurality in the county.

H. T. RAINEY IS WHITE HALL SPEAKER

Made Armistice Day Address Sunday—Other News From White Hall and Vicinity.

White Hall, Nov. 12.—In his Armistice Day address in Princess theatre here, Congressman Henry T. Rainey found a receptive audience to his expression concerning preparedness, where in the congressman approved the ideas of the chairman, Capt. Dean Cora, for certain preparedness and a maximum appropriation for carrying out the training of military officers.

Congressman Rainey referred to our unpreparedness for war by way of saying that republics are never prepared for war, for we can not go beyond certain limits of preparedness and retain our republican form of government.

Mr. Rainey gave a review of the late war in an interesting way, and outlined the accomplishments of the arms conference as reducing battleship armament, and then proceeded to show that battleships as a means of defense are obsolete under the development of the air service and poison gas bombs. "It is a satisfaction to meet here in this industrial community, surrounded by golden fields of corn waving in the autumn breeze," began Mr. Rainey. "At the outset of the World War ours was the newest nation in the world, but with the readjustments and faltering thrones, ours has now become the oldest. Those nations that have thrown off their old forms of government are patterned after the United States."

A new day in the world is coming, and it is idle for us to longer consider aloofness from some kind of participation in the affairs of the world," he said that Canada has as much freedom as the United States, and that India will be wholly independent and free within two years. The same is true of Australia and other British dominions, including Ireland that that country only thought so.

Congressman Rainey's greatest hope for permanent peace seems to lie in the fear of the agencies of destruction now in process of perfection. He mentioned the statement to him by one government chemist that a gas has been found that can be dropped from an airplane in the form of a bomb, and in ten seconds will kill five thousand people in a populous city like New York. Yet the congressman and Capt. Cora both deplored of the passing of war so long as there is hate in the human make-up.

MILLIKIN SEVERS ATHLETIC RELATIONS WITH ILL. WESLEYAN

Four Year Suspension Comes After Disgrace- ful Fist Fight.

The following article was taken from the Decatur Review and will be of interest to local football fans.

Decatur fans who saw the Homecoming contest on Millikin field Saturday witnessed the last Millikin-Wesleyan game in any line of sport for at least four years. Acting President Arthur Wald of Millikin announced officially to the Review Saturday night that all athletic relations with Wesleyan were suspended for at least a college generation, or for four years. His decision is concurred in by Prof. L. M. Cole of the Millikin Athletic Board and Coach Rollie Williams.

The order of suspension which results in the cancellation of basketball and baseball games already scheduled, comes as a result of rough tactics used in the Millikin-Wesleyan game Saturday afternoon, which closed with a free-for-all fight between the players of the two teams and was further carried along by a near mob scene on the field and at the gym after the game when infuriated Millikin supporters and Wesleyan rooters and players almost staged a riot. Only the intervention of the police and the pleading of alumni who kept their heads in the crisis averted further trouble.

Ancient Rivals
The cause of the struggle dates back a decade or more, since Millikin and Wesleyan became traditional rivals. Saturday's climax to the bad blood between the schools started when Millikin first kicked off to the Wesleyan team. With both teams entering the game even, the record of the game worked up to a high point of emotional determination to win, the clash was inevitable. Several times during the game Wesleyan men were penalized or warned, for using rough tactics. In the last half minute of play, a Wesleyan player is said to have deliberately attempted to injure Captain Wayne Bowman already injured leg, and Buddy Maxwell, center, at once declared war. Joe Carp, big Millikin tackle enlisted and the fight was on.

When the dust had cleared away and the tangled heap of players was unraveled, Carp was stretched out half conscious and Bowman had fainted from the pain of his injured leg. Then the riot scene occurred. Wesleyan players barricaded themselves in the gym and made their escape in cars after the mob had been dispersed.

Blame Officials
The blame, in the eyes of many who saw the game, lies not so much with the players, as with the officials who permitted the rough stuff to go on throughout the contest. Slugging players and kneeling passed unnoticed and unpunished again and again. Had the officials say witnesses, taken a firm stand at the outset and had given both teams to understand that such violations of the rules would be dealt with drastically, the result might have been different. A disinterested spectator declared it the loosest officiated game he had seen, where there was such intense rivalry.

Break Relations
"Another game of any kind with Wesleyan for several years is unthinkable, in my mind," said President Wald Saturday night. "Not until the present generation of students and players have passed out of both schools can the relations be resumed, and not then if the strong feeling exists as it does now."

"Where the blame lies, I cannot say," he continued. "How- ever the record of the Wesleyan team during the year compared to Millikin's record points to the fact that Wesleyan has been a rather rough team. It is an unfortunate incident and one that all sport-lovers must regret."

Cole Supports Move
"I personally favor the suspension of relations with Wesleyan," said Prof. L. M. Cole. Mr. Cole was not yet advised of President Wald's decision. "No matter what investigation may show was the cause, we cannot continue our relations with Wesleyan under the present circumstances. Officially, the record of the game shows that a Wesleyan player was put out of the game earlier for slugging and the Bloomington team was penalized several times for rough tactics. I have been told that Oliver deliberately struck one of our men. The evidence appears to be against them."

Williams for Cancellation
Rollie Williams, Millikin coach, following the game said, when asked if relations were to be suspended, that he would make no official statement until he had conferred with President Wald. "I would like," he said, "to cancel all of my games with the Methodist school. I think that we have no business playing with such an aggregation." Further than that he would make no statement.

Millikin fans declare Wesleyan was at fault. There was blood in the eye of every man who stormed the field after the encounter, and who surrounded the gym after the Wesleyan team had taken refuge. Dr. R. Z. Sanders and Gus Weber were peace makers who harangued the angry crowd from the steps of the gym.

Coach Cartwright of the Wesleyan team said after the game that it was a regrettable incident.

During the game Hanley, a Wesleyan tackle, was removed from the game for rough play and the team penalized half the distance to their goal. Hanley came from the field smiling and the Wesleyan players on the sidelines smiled with him.

Ames, Iowa, Nov. 12.—Towa State College will enter cross country teams in the Missouri Valley race at Lawrence, Kansas, next Saturday and in the Big Ten race at Ohio State the following week, it was announced.

SOUTHERNERS

MAY WORRY ILLINI

NEXT SATURDAY

URBANA, Ill., Nov. 12.—Mississippi A. and M. College was booked by Bob Zuppke as a comfortable kind of game to have for a breathing space before he led the fighting Illini to Columbus for the final battle of the season. But the southerners may not be a set-up after all. Only two weeks ago they turned in and played a game with Vanderbilt University, one of the strongest eleven in the entire south. Vanderbilt is well known up north because the Commodores tied Michigan last year, and this year held the Wolverines to a 3-0 score.

Now Vanderbilt has a strong back field and the fact that the Mississippi Aggies prevented these star backs from scoring makes it look as if the visitors will have sufficient defense to make things more interesting than the casual sport-follower imagines.

Down south they have a high respect for Mississippi. Their teams have consistently battled for honors in the first division and they play the best teams of Dixie-land. The Illini are pretty well satisfied that they will have plenty to do to halt these lads.

Exclusive of the present season, the Mississippi Aggies have played 169 intercollegiate games, winning 94, losing 63, and tying 12. A grand total of 2,780 points have been scored to opponents' 1,554. During this period A. & M. has played all of the leading southern teams and has frequently gone outside of the Southern Conference territory for intercollegiate games with the best teams of the Southwestern Conference and Middle West. The list of intercollegiate opponents includes Texas A. & M. University of Texas, Haskell Indians, University of Arkansas, Drake University, and the University of Indiana, several of whom have frequently appeared on the A. & M. schedule. In 1911, after a very successful season, Coach W. D. Chadwick who is now the head of the Department of Physical Education and Athletics, took his team to Havana, Cuba, for a post season game, and defeated the Havana Athletic Club on Christmas Day 12-0 in one of the first games ever played in Cuba.

Other noteworthy intercollegiate games include victories over Texas A. & M. in 1913 and again in 1916. In the latter year Texas A. & M. had won the Southwestern Conference championship after going through a brilliant season under the coaching of Eddie Harlan of Princeton, but the Mississippi Aggies upset the dope and humiliated the Texans by a 6-0 defeat after a thrilling and hardfought game. Mississippi A. & M. has also won her games with Arkansas and the Haskell Indians, defeating the latter at Memphis in 1917 by a 7-6 score.

YANKS MAY MAINTAIN ### THEIR PRESENT LINE

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—If the world's champion New York Yankees stand pat on their present lineup for 1924, as they have indicated, it will be the first time they have done so in eight years in which Colonel Jacob Ruppert has been connected with the club ownership.

A series of big deals, principally with the Boston Red Sox, has marked the Yankee course ever since Ruppert and his former partner, T. L. Hudson, took over the team in 1915. No doubt the champions will have their quota of youngsters early in the spring, but for the first time in many seasons, no major transactions with other big league clubs are in sight.

Last winter's bartering resulted in the acquisition of Herb Pennock, star pitcher, in exchange for several young players.

PLANNING FOR GREAT

INTERNATIONAL RACE

PARIS, Nov. 12.—(By The Associated Press.)—An attempt is under way by the Longchamp Racing Society and the newspaper Le Journal, acting under the auspices of the Jockey Club of France, to organize a match race between the best qualified horses of the breeding of 1920 in the United States, Great Britain and France, the event to be staged at Longchamp on May 3 next. Pierre Wertheimer's Espinard would represent France.

Under the present plans the race would be at a distance of one mile and a quarter, each horse carrying 126 pounds but the amount of the stakes has not been decided upon.

SEASON'S RECORD

FOR FIELD GOAL

DES MOINES, Iowa, Nov. 12.—

When John Pence, the Coe college back made a fifty five yard drop kick for a field goal in the Drake-Coe football game here Saturday, he established a season's drop kick record, football experts here declared today. Only three drop kicks and two place kicks in the history of football have been good for a greater distance according to the record cited.

Officials of the game disputed a report that Pence's kick was for 59 yards but indicated he might be credited with 56 yards inasmuch as he stood just back of the 55 yard line.

The records here show 5 longest field goal in football history was on a kick from placement by Haxall of Princeton in the Yale game of 1882. It was good for 65 yards.

The longest drop kick was 63 yards, made by Mark Payne, of Dakota Wesleyan University in a game against Northern Normal, at Aberdeen, South Dakota, in 1915.

Market Report

By The Associated Press

UPWARD MOVEMENT OF MARKET HALTED

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—The upward movement of stock prices which has been under way with a few minor upturns since October 31, was temporarily halted today by a wave of selling for both accounts apparently based on the belief that the rapidity of recent advance warranted at least a moderate reaction on technical grounds.

Secretary Mellon's proposal for a reduction of federal income taxes apparently met with favor in the financial community because it brought a large volume of buying orders into the market, giving the opening a strong tone. The early gains ran from one to five points, covering a broad list but with the best displays of group strength being shown by the merchandising, steel, food, equipment and chemical shares.

New high records for the year were established on the opening by all Erie railroad issues, Krescon, Conaig and Willys Overland preferred. United States Steel and American Can touched new high levels in the current movement, steel closed 1.8 higher at 94½ after having sold nearly at a point above that figure, and Can closing at par for a net loss of one point after having hit 102½.

Extension of the gasoline price cutting war to New England and other eastern states had a somewhat depressing effect on the oil shares throughout the session.

Heavy buying of the Erie issues, approximately 75,000 shares of which changed hands, undoubtedly was influenced by reports of high October earnings.

Private offering of 300,000 shares of no-par capital stock of the William Wrigley Jr. company will be made some time this week. While no official announcement has yet been made the stock, which is to be listed on the New York Stock Exchange, will probably be sold around $40 or $42 a share.

Call money opened at 4½ per cent and then dropped to 4¼ where it closed. Time money was unchanged with business quiet. Demand sterling broke more than three cents to $4.35½ a new low for the year.

MEMORIAL SERVICE AT ILLINOIS COLLEGE

President Rammelkamp feelingly called to mind the part college alumni and students had in the war—Address by Dr. Rule

Armistice Day was observed in chapel exercises at Illinois college this morning by a very interesting program. The choir, under the directorship of Frank Collins sang "The Americans Come." President Rammelkamp called the following members of the faculty and the student body, who had served in the World War to the platform: of the faculty, Professors Wolfe, Caldwell, Melvin and Rule and Coach Harmon; of the student body, Earl Brown, Henry Alexander, Wilbur Ribelin, Royce Hauck and Robert Shaw.

Rev. Andrew K. Rule, who served in the New Zealand army during the war gave an interesting and informational talk in which he spoke of the part which New Zealand took in the conflict. Prof. Rule said that England did not have to draft the men from her colonies in the war, because they went of their own accord in the very beginning. Although New Zealand's part in the war might seem small, Prof. Rule stated that she had done quite as much as and in some cases more in proportion to her size, than any country in the war.

President Rammelkamp said that Illinois college had not fallen behind any college in contributing her share of men to fight in the World War. Four hundred and twenty-five Illinois college men, students and alumni fought and the college has on her service flag nine gold stars.

Rev. John Phillips, of Manchester, N. H., son of the late W. S. Phillips, an alumnus of Illinois college, dismissed the assembly.

KLAN SPEAKER IN PUBLIC ADDRESS

Thomas E. Kirby of Petersburg Heard Monday Night in Address on Purposes of Ku Klux Klan—Made Numerous Charges

Thomas E. Kirby, of Petersburg, a former football star of Illinois College, presented the cause of the Ku Klux Klan last night in an address before an audience of more than 600 people in the high school auditorium. Mr. Kirby has the title of Great Klallin in the Klan and is now one of the national lecturers.

Fred S. Brown, the local Klan organizer, called the meeting to order and announced that this was the first of a series of lectures to be given here in the interest of the Klan. The next lecture will be an invitation affair and all men present who wished to be invited were requested to sign cards which had been distributed.

An electric fiery cross had been placed on the platform, as had also the Klan altar, an open Bible and an American flag. One number of the program was a solo "The Mystic City," given by an unknown singer from behind the scenes. It was a Klan song.

When Mr. Kirby was introduced, he told the story of what prayer had meant in the making of the American constitution, and then asked that some minister in the audience lead in prayer. Rev. W. E. Spooner responded.

The speaker said at the outset that he wished to explain reasons for his belief that the Klan is necessary, what it stands for and how the remedies for the alleged evils it fights are to be secured. He then made various references to Jews and Roman Catholics, and gave an outline of what he termed the Catholic purpose to gain political control in the United States.

The Jews and Finance.
Among other things, the speaker charged that seven Jews, sitting in Wall street, control the finances of America. According to his statements, the Jews control eighteen industries in the United States, and 3,500,000 Jews own 75 per cent of the country's wealth. Kirby urged his hearers to boycott the Jews, and spend their money with Americans, in order to thwart the Jew in his alleged effort to rule America thru the control of wealth.

The speaker charged that 60,000 Roman Catholics were designated by the Pope in 1923 to join the Masonic order. He said that Freemasons had laid down their arms in their fight against Catholicism and that the Klan had taken up the burden. He said that the Klan had patterned its organization after the alleged political organization of the Catholics, and was prepared to fight fire with fire. He charged the Catholics with the intention of moving the Vatican to Washington, D. C., stating that the Roman church owns today $100,000,000 worth of property in the national capital.

The speaker gave the Klan version of how the Y. M. C. A. lost its prestige during the war thru what he termed a catholic conspiracy. The American Tobacco Co., he said, donated tobacco and cigarettes to the government. These were turned over to the Navy Department, which assigned them to the fourth secretary of the Navy, who was a member of the Knights of Columbus. The donations were divided into four equal parts, to be given to the K. of C., the Salvation Army and Jewish Relief, and to the Y. M. C. A. When the "Y" officials came to get their portion in France they found $40,000 charged up against them for the tobacco. Other organizations received their portions without charge. This, Kirby said, was why the Y. M. C. A. charged the boys for the cigarettes.

The speaker also gave his version of the recent Louisiana scandal, stating that the two men who were supposed to have been murdered by Klansmen, and thrown into the lake, were really concealed in a monastery in New Orleans, and that two bodies were stolen from a medical college and placed in the lake to deceive the authorities who were investigating the tragedy. The whole thing, he charged, was a Catholic frame-up to discredit the Klan in Louisiana.

HUNGARIAN VIOLINIST PLEASES AUDIENCE

Emil Telmányi Appeared Last Night as Second Number in Woman's College Artist Series.

During the past decade many geniuses have appeared in the world of interpretative music, but in no one field of such work have as many new lights illuminated the field of music as in the field of violin playing. Almost monthly some new violinist comes before the public so well prepared that people are carried afresh into superlatives, and we wonder if the limit in violin playing is, then, never to be reached.

To this class of players Jacksonville listened at the Woman's College last night, when Emil Telmányi, a Hungarian violinist, who is new to Americans, played a wonderful program for a delighted audience.

Altho Mr. Telmányi appeared a few times last season in some of the musical centers, the program last night was the first public work he has done this season; his presentation proved him fully ready for the triumphs that are sure to come to him during the season which is just now opening.

The program opened with the sonata by Tartini, which the about 200 years old is ever fresh and new. Its verandry was never more amply set forth than in Mr. Telmányi's masterly playing. He substituted for the solo "symphony" the violin concerto by Mendelssohn. This is a war horse on which many an artist has ridden forth to victory; when this number is presented with the symphony orchestra, Mr. Telmányi, too, will ride to victory. The enormous speed with which he plays and his strong, quick contrasts, will effectively win his hearers and conquer the critics.

Among other things he gets a marvelous tone, big, clear, and lovely, out of his superb instrument. He plays with fire; he is not afraid to make his meaning clear beyond a doubt, and to supply just such nuances as keep the listener on the qui viv for his next sentence.

At the close of the program he played his own arrangement of the F. Sharp "somnanza" by Schumann.

But what shall we say of Mr. Carlin, who appeared as supporting pianist? Perhaps all the lovely things that might be said of him can be put in the following sentence: His superb accompaniments are such that he would "make a splendid soloist out of one that ain't." Mr. Telmányi played splendid solos to wonderful accompaniments.

Alfred Coe and Mrs. H. P. Wilhamson are guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Mohr, at their home on Sandusky street.

Your Body Says, 'Give Me More Bread'

The body instinctively calls for bread. Fill that natural need. Eat plenty of bread. Bread is the true foundation of the meal.

Bread is the staff that has supported man in his progress from cave-dwelling to airplane flying.

For generations bread has been recognized as the cheapest and most nourishing food.

Bread is made better today than it ever was before in the history of the world because the modern baker is a master of food preparation. Our equipment and methods are perfected and our flour and other materials are chosen with great care.

Just eat an extra slice of "Ideal" at each meal and give your body what it needs.
